

ing. I think in short he will be able to hold his own because he will listen. He will be able to help the team. He is not a screwball. He is very serious-minded.
He knows how to take orders. The men like him. I sometimes think the army could help a lot of these other young players because they do not want to take orders.
I haven't said anything to "Cap" about this letter.
So you know what to do.
Here is the line-up.

Sincerely
Geo. (Mule) Suttles

P.S. I am going to answer Jack son letter telling him that he will hear from you concerning the infielders at once.

Dear Mrs Manley;
I was very surprised
to receive your letter
but glad that you contacted me at once.
The trip ^{as} you may have heard was not very successful.
The Gray out hit us
but in one sense
they took advantage
of our young talent
which you know would happen.

The men seem to have been excited by them. They would
